WHAT'S UP FOR FEBRUARY 2012

Happy Valentines to everyone! This first month of 2012 has been spectacular. We've been planning some really cool stuff lately.

We are adding something different and fun daily! This includes more deal days! SO STAY TUNED!!

We can't wait to let the cat out of the bag! (Check your Calendar of Events at the bottom of this Newsletter)

As we mentioned, we are starting 2012 off with some new ideas. DROP OFF!!

We are looking into implementing a drop off program for your children but are in need of YOUR FEEDBACK.

Your children will enjoy themselves in our cheery and stimulating play space, and burn off some energy with our activity leaders while you get time to run errands, workout, go for dinner or just plain relax. Cabin Fever will provide a ratio of 1 staff member to every 10 kids.

The cost includes a snack, craft time, songs, games, and free play. Children must be potty trained.

We have not set a price as of yet but we will send out a mini mail, update our website and Facebook group as soon as this is determined.

Here is where we need your feedback!

Drop Off will be an addition to our regular open play (parent/caregiver supervised) which will continue during our regular hours.

LET US KNOW WHAT YOU THINK! Reply to this newsletter or through our Facebook Group

Crop nights will continue every other Wednesday night unless a party is booked for that time slot. Watch the Calendar of Events or Facebook for updates
